

There are places you enter
and places you arrive at.

Eaté is among the latter.

A space you arrive at to discover the territory,
seasonality, and that familiar flavor that gently
leads you toward an unexpected direction.

EATÉ

It is an experience that goes beyond the everyday.

It is a moment of choice and anticipation,
to be lived differently.

And when you leave the table,
you are left with the clear feeling of having encountered the unexpected.

"My cuisine is born from a clear conviction:
technique is a tool in service of the ingredient.

My experience in international fine dining
has shaped an approach in me in which rigor becomes measure, turning into an essential gesture."

THE CHEF

"Each dish takes shape through a clear structure,
where elements interact in natural harmony,
and balance is built through the control of intensities,
temperatures, and textures.

I seek depth: that detail which lingers,
settles in memory, and transforms
the meal into a memory to be savored."

EXECUTIVE CHEF
Andrea Cimino
